

PLATFORM AS A SERVICE (PAAS)

Broker Intelligence Engine - Self Service Application -
Self-Assisted Protocol & Support Layer

Bringing the Power of Enterprise Cloud Solutions to the PCN

The industry's first single-source platform to build your private client business and monetize your PCMA Partner Network membership.

LendingIQ powered by PCMA helps automate service delivery from end-to-end in minutes driving powerful business outcomes by automating interfaces across the private client ecosystem.

WHAT IS LENDINGIQ?

LendingIQ is a unique, cloud-based broker intelligence engine and partner support platform dramatically changing how origination professionals collaborate and business applications are accessed.

Our self-service & self-assisted platform supports proprietary applications for automated decisioning, origination sales, certification competency, private client marketing and much, much more—and it doesn't require IT experts to set up or manage. Simply log in and start connecting to the private client community in an entirely new way.

LENDINGIQ INSTANT LOAN DECISIONING

LendingIQ was designed to capitalize on the lucrative Private Client marketplace with our proprietary decision engine. LendingIQ's automated underwriting and loan pricing solution streamlines the underwriting complexities of the Mass Affluent (MAI) and High Net-Worth (HNI) clientele, ensuring the challenges of compliance, fair lending, and instant loan decisioning meets and exceeds the standards of high expectation.

PCMA CERTIFIED PARTNER CATALOGUE

PCMA has established a system of preference that helps private client customers and industry-related professionals quickly find the right partner with the expertise they need. The Certified Partner Catalogue is a LendingIQ hosted online directory that provides customers, prospects, and PCMA employees with instant access to PCN Certified Marketplace Experts.

PCMA PARTNERPREP™

A competency program that enables your organization to earn qualification or certification for PCMA Private Client Lending products and technology services.

LendingIQ's Partner Enablement Readiness Platform (PREP) is a modern learning platform introducing skills badging and guided learning paths to stay informed and exchange product expertise with marketplace professionals and high capacity clientele.

PartnerPrep™ training accomplishments have market value, and with increased participation you will be able to elevate your stature and reputation as a thought leader in Private Client Lending.
